

STRONG PLAYERS' WEEKEND: 15 – 17 September 2017

Location

The weekend will be based at Alison and Simon Bexfield's house, 130 Wilbury Road, Letchworth, Hertfordshire, SG6 4JG.

Letchworth Garden City station is on the King's Cross to Cambridge railway line a few miles away from Stevenage (which is on the east coast main line).

Qualification

The weekend will be limited to 16 players. Until 20th August, BGA members with an EGC rating of 2000 or greater will be accepted on a first come, first served basis. After 20th August, the weekend will be open to all players with a rating less than 2000 – the next strongest players will be selected. Therefore you are advised to enter as soon as possible: if you are a BGA member over 2000 you will get an immediate (well, almost) acceptance/rejection, if less than 2000 you will get an acceptance/rejection on 21st August.

Teacher

Catalin Taranu, 5p, will be running the weekend. For more details about Catalin, please see <http://gobase.org/studying/schools/catalin/>.

Timing

The event will begin on Friday evening (15th September) at 19:00 and finish on Sunday (17th September) at 16:00. Attendance on the Friday evening is optional.

Accommodation and Catering.

A limited amount of accommodation is available at the Bexfield's – mostly floor space (camping in the garden is another option). Please enquire with your entry. Lunch on Saturday and Sunday, and an evening meal on Saturday, is included in the fee, as is tea/coffee.

Price

The weekend will cost £55 (£35 if under 18). Please pay on the day, or by bank transfer to the BGA account 40-28-06, 54239946.

There will be a £5 surcharge for non-BGA members.

Entries

Please send an email to spwe@britgo.org, to include your name, strength and rating.
