Your editor has just returned from the World Amateur Go Championship in Tokyo, where he acted as European Team Captain (non-playing). Please therefore put any errors in this issue down to jetlag.

First two places went, as expected, to the Chinese players. Best placed Occidental was Aguilar (Argentine) 5th, and best European was Mattner (W.Germany) 7th. Our own Matthew Macfadyen came 14th, but owing to the complicated draw these results are a bit misleading, as I will explain more fully in the BGJ.

Meanwhile, may I politely point out that I am an editor, not a reporter. At least one of the small errors in Issue No.1 was the result of relevant information simply not having been passed on. I would rather receive the same information twice than not at all, so please don't assume that "someone else will tell him".      F.R.

British Go Congress 1982      Copy dates: Issue 3 - June 5th; Issue 4 - August 7th

112 members took part in the now traditional 6-Round MacMahon Tournament at Nottingham University from March 19th - 21st. Overall winner was Jon Diamond (CLGC). Other players with five or more points were J. Bates (CLGC), Y.Nakamura (Sheffield), J.Rickard (Cambridge), M.Starkins (Coventry), D.Macfarlane (Nottingham), O.Pye (Leeds), and A. Cannel (York).

Thanks to Tony Atkins and Bob Loughrey for competent organisation. It is hoped that the 1983 Congress will be at Warwick.
