BRITISH LIGHTNING, CANTERBURY:

As usual, the Lightning Competition was held on the eve of the British Congress. Time limits were 12 minutes and sudden death. The winner was Mark Hall with 6 straight wins, Tony Atkins came second and Chris Dawson third.

BRITISH CONGRESS, CANTERBURY:

The main tournament was won by Matthew Macfadyen (6d Coventry/Oxford) with 6/6. Harold Lee (4d Melior) was second with 5/6. The Youth prize was won by Garry Mills (Brakenhale). Other winners with 5/6 were: Mark Munro (4k Bristol) and Jackie Chai (10k Bournemouth). A special prize was given to Niek van Diepen (3d NL) with 4/6 for a special effort. Other prizes were given to the 6 best placed players with 4/6: Bill Brakes (2d DU), Bob Bagot (2d Manchester), Peter Yim (1k Manchester), Jiri Keller (3k C. London), Chris Dawson (4k Furze Platt), D. Cock (6k Stevenage). Qualifiers for the 1991 Candidates' Tournament were Peter Yim and Steve Welch. The team prize was won by Melior. The Terry Stacey Trophy for most wins above the bar in British Tournaments was retained by Harold Lee. Can he make it 3 in a row? Tony Atkins organised the congress which was attended by 70 players. They found the setting at Canterbury University was both attractive and comfortable, which bodes well for next year's European Congress which is to be held there.

≡ NEWS ≡

LONDON OPEN: The EGF Rules Committee have decided that the final game between the two Russians Detkov and Lazarev shall be considered void as a result of rule breaches which are considered to have had a bearing on their final placings of first and second. The Tournament Committee endorse this view, and consequently, the revised winner of the tournament is the originally third placed M. Katscher (D).
