

Reference form for Go teachers of young people

Name:

The above named person has expressed an interest in volunteering with our organisation as a Go teacher for young people and has given your name as a referee. This voluntary post involves working directly with children and young people and may include unsupervised contact. The volunteer will also act as an ambassador for the game of Go in schools and youth clubs.

As an organisation committed to the welfare and protection of children, we wish to know if there is any reason at all to be concerned about this applicant's suitability for this type of role. If you are happy to complete this reference, any information will be treated confidentially. We would appreciate you being open and honest in your evaluation of this person.
